Doctor marks 25 years in Elk Point practice

Just in time to celebrate Family Doctor Week, Mayor Parrish Tung, Town Coun. Bernice Capjack and CAO Ken Gwozdz kept a very special appointment with Dr. Drew Ramful, congratulating the very busy physician on 25 years, as of Nov. 1, in his Elk Point practice and presenting him with a certificate of appreciation and a cake to share with his staff and patients.

Chamber welcomes new Sergeant

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce president Jonny Nielsen welcomed newly arrived RCMP Sgt. Barry Larocque to Elk Point at the chamber's Nov. 4 meeting and told the members that the RCMP had been handing out candy to trick-or-treaters they encountered while making their rounds on Halloween evening. Sgt. Larocque said this was an effort "to make ourselves visible in a good way" to the youngsters.

With Halloween over, just one of the Scarecrow Contest winners from the business community, ATB Financial representative Geoff Hyslop was on hand to accept the first prize cheques, with the second place cheque to be delivered to the Elk Point Municipal Library and third prize to Knotty Boyz Embroidering and Gifts. Moving ahead to coming attractions in the community, the chamber's attention turned to preparations for Christmas and the Nov. 21 Christmas Extravaganza.

Extravaganza committee treasurer Lesia Porcina said plans are "going well so far, but we are still looking for more volunteers" to assist with various events. Recreation director Jena Colbourne said she would be taking two possible ideas for an Extravaganza promotion to the next day's meeting for the committee's approval.

Colbourne also offered promotional help and financial assistance in the form of the $250 first prize money for the chamber's annual Christmas Lighting and Decorating Contest, which members agreed should be continued this year. A second prize of $150 and third prize of $100 will also be awarded, with judging scheduled to take place in the week prior to Christmas.

In his President's Report, Nielsen was pleased to announce that work is already underway on the roof at Elk Point Health Care Centre, with completion expected to be by the end of January. He questioned a report from the Interagency Health and Wellness Committee meeting that indicated physiotherapy consultation was available at the Centre, and plans to pursue that matter further.

Remembrance Day program planned

Elk Point's Remembrance Day observances will follow the traditional format, with everyone gathering at the Seniors' Recreation Centre by 10:15 a.m., ready for the parade to the Cenotaph at 10:30 a.m.

Following the laying of wreaths, the assembly will move back into the Centre for a short program, followed by a light lunch.

Extravaganza committee's fingers crossed for snow

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Everything is coming together for the Saturday, Nov. 21 Christmas Extravaganza.... except for one thing: the lack of snow.

That was prior to Sunday's snowfall and there was next to no white stuff in the long range forecast last Thursday when the committee worked at finalizing their plans, and made an attempt to find alternate locations and ideas in case the weather continues to stay dry and above freezing in the next two weeks.

Many activities for the first-ever Saturday afternoon staging of the event, such as the photos with Santa, tractor-drawn wagon rides, hot dog roasting at one of the bonfires, the outdoor beverage garden, Winter Wonderland Parade and fireworks display are not dependent on the weather. The town has given permission to close one block of Main Street for the afternoon and the parade route in early evening, and the fire rings will be delivered as requested. Businesses, organizations and sports teams are all invited to take part in the parade, with no prior registration needed, and lineup on Railway Avenue at 5:30 p.m. for a 6 p.m. start.

Snow or no snow, the decorations are going up this week on the big spruce trees just east of the EcoCentre and on the EcoCentre itself, in gleeful anticipation of the light-up ceremony just before the parade. Nor will the weather pose a problem for the strolling carolers as they tour the downtown area, or for those taking the opportu-ity to get some early Christmas shopping done, participating in the soup cook-off competition, the children's cookie decorating, the coloring contest or other indoor events.

The final posts were being pounded into fencing for an oval track west of the Visitor Information EcoCentre when the committee arrived for their Nov. 5 meeting, but without snow the brand new activities of dogsled rides that were slated to take place at that location and the snowshoe races on Main Street would definitely have a problem. Also, the turkey toss and the hotshot hockey hole might have to make the move from the Iron Horse Trail staging area to an alternate indoor venue.

Watch next week's issue for updates and more event details.

First game for Micro Novice fills the stands

It's always fun watching these guys play hockey. Every year it's the same, just like a domino effect, once one falls down it's a chain reaction, they all fall down. The Micro Novice Avalanche played their very first game here on Saturday morning against Dewberry and the bleachers were filled to the rafters with parents and proud grandparents. Braylee 'B J' Lesyk scoring a hat trick, coming in from the wild west end of town, 'Wyatt Earp' Fonatine with two assists, and another sharp shooter, Remington 'Steel' Reynolds with an assist as well. Many new players this year including Jaxon Smith, whose dad Shane played all his minor hockey here, David Cardinal who has three older brothers playing here, and Nolan 'Notorious' Ballas, the son of Tyson Ballas who's one of my hall of fame former Sox pitcher/catchers, plus many others who we will mention in the weeks to come.

Standing on his head in the eye of the storm, 'Cyclone Cole' Pierce was doing one heck of a job in net for the Novice team, facing 34 shots when they played St. Paul right after the flyweights on Saturday at home. 'Top Gunner' Crawford hitting the target with two goals, Kaysen DeMoissac, 'Good time Charlie' Lesyk and Madden 'Mad Dog' Flamond all with one goal each. Bo Diddle' Fontaine, 'Timmy Joe' Cardinal and Sebastien Brosseau all with assists. Kady Bourne, 'Hurricane Kayl' Warawa and the Henderson twins, Charlotte and Anna doing some terrific fore-checking. Defensemen Brendan 'Blue line' Haesch-Baker and Raif 'Rug Rat' Evans-Anderson protecting their goalie. Evett Smereka showing some competitive spirit that he must have inherited from his mother, Misty. Trysten Sakowski, and Kale 'Ever Ready' Hoeving going hard end-to-end playing both ends of the rink. 'Linkin Park' Pankiw almost tied the game with seconds left on the clock, the novice losing a real close one 6 to 5.

On Sunday the novice traveled to Lac La Biche. Goals for 'Top Gunner', Hurricane Kayl' and 'Timmy Joe'. Between the pipes goalie Kale 'Ever Ready' Hoeving did a fantastic job.

But that's not all, folks, what a game the Atom No. 2 team had with a super tough team out of Cold Lake, they battled right to the finish line even though the outcome was not that great, everyone did their job, it was a total team effort, but this team is just that much better and could possibly be moved up one tier. 'Mic Jager' Fontaine with four goals, Josef 'Red' Theriault with two assists but the whole team deserves a real pat on the back for their efforts.

On Sunday the Atom No. 2 traveled to Saddle Lake, Ryan 'Ram Rod' Cameron scoring his first goal ever, but for sure not his last. 'Kid Kade' Fontaine was solid as a rock in the cage.

There was action all day long from morning until late night at the A. G. Ross, except for the pee wee time slot, they had a weekend off, most of them playing in their final volleyball tournament, but a few did show up for shinny....

CELEBRATING FAMILY DOCTOR WEEK - In recognition of Dr. Ayobami Oyeboode's 11 years of service to the people of Elk Point and surrounding areas, Mayor Parrish Tung, Coun. Bernice Capjack and CAO Ken Gwozdz delivered a certificate of appreciation and a cake to his office. 'Dr. O', along with fellow recipient Dr. Drew Ramful, shared the cakes with the mayor and hospital staff at an impromptu coffee party later in the day, where Mayor Tung gave a brief message of thanks to both physicians for their dedication and for taking excellent care of the community over the years.

Elks win one, lose one on home ice

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Friday's Elk Point Elks game against Lashburn was the polar opposite to the previous week's shutout of Paradise Valley Jets, which, mercifully for the visitors, was called on account of darkness at the beginning of the second period.

The Oct. 30 power outage blanked out the Elks' 6 - 0 lead, with Matthew Boulianne and Chevy Botting scoring two apiece, Dyson Karbashewski and Corey Hunter scoring singles, and Botting, Jordyn Wozniak, Grayson Brown and Conrad Pierce providing the assists and Paul Boulianne keeping the door shut on the Elks goal.

This week, Brandon Watchmaker was in goal for the first two periods, and despite some spectacular saves, could not completely stave the hailstorm of pucks. Lashburn scored their first 20 seconds into the game, but didn't increase their lead until more than 18 minutes later, in a penalty-free period.

In the second period, Lashburn did it again, with a first-minute goal, took advantage of an Elks penalty to add another, with their fifth and final goal coming 10 seconds after the midpoint of the game.

The Elks ramped up their defense, Watchmaker fended off all comers and the game stayed at 5 - 0 for the next 19 minutes and 55 seconds, with Paul Boulianne taking over the goal for the third period. Matthew Boulianne scored the Elks' lone goal of the evening off an assist from Derek Westwith 7:29 left in the game, sparking a roar from the crowd. A pair of minor tussles sent players from both teams to the penalty box and one of the Elks and two Flyers to the dressing room to wind up the evening.

This week, the Elks are on the road, visiting Paradise Hill on Friday and Paradise Valley on Saturday.

Fatal collision

SGT. B. LAROCQUE
Elk Point RCMP

On Nov. 4, at approximately 1:55 p.m. the Elk Point and Bonnyville RCMP were dispatched to a single vehicle collision on Highway 41 near Township Road 585A. (approximately 18 km north of Elk Point on Highway 41). A 2005 Chevrolet Cavalier was northbound on Highway 41 when it lost control, rolled and ended up inverted on its roof. There were five people in the vehicle at the time. Citizens passing by stopped and helped the injured from the vehicle. The driver, a 21 year old male from Kehewin, was pronounced deceased at the scene. The four other passengers were transported to St Paul and Bonnyville hospitals. The passengers' medical conditions are not known at this time. Preliminary investigation revealed that speed and alcohol are likely factors in this collision. The investigation continues.

Regional EMS, Elk Point Fire Department, Bonnyville RCMP, Elk Point RCMP and the RCMP Collision Reconstruction Analyst all assisted with the management and investigation of this collision.

OBITUARY

MCKENZIE, Ida "Ruth" (Brodie) (Stone)

On April 13, 1937, Mrs. Ida Ruth (Brodie) (Stone) McKenzie was born in Cereal, Alberta; daughter of George H. Brodie & I. Leona (Courts) Brodie. Ruth grew up in Sundre on a homestead built by her parents. After finishing her schooling, one of her memorable jobs was working on the Taylor Ranch, where she discovered a great & lifelong love for working with horses. Foremost of them was "Ranger", the first of many during her life. In 1956 she married Norman L. Stone. In 1959, they and their first 2 of 4 children moved to Jarvis, Ontario. They divorced in the late 1960's. In 1975 Ruth married Art L. McKenzie & they had 2 daughters. They lived & farmed in the Haldimand area. Art passed away in 1994, & in 1996 Ruth returned to Alberta. She lived the remainder of her life in St. Paul, Innisfail & Elk Point, Alberta. With her passing, she leaves behind 5 of her 6 siblings, Barb (Ken) Nielsen, Gord Brodie, Doug (Cora) Brodie, Don Brodie (Ethel) & Betty (Clarence) Moore; 8 of her 10 children & stepchildren, Randy (Jackie) Stone, Renn Stone, Terry (Grace) Stone, Kelly Stone, Colleen (Maynard) Swedgan, Val (Ken) Gee, Hazel (Paul) Gamble & Duane (Lynn) McKenzie; stepson-in-law, Gary McIntyre; 18 grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren; 11 brothers & sisters-in-law; aunt & uncle, Dean (Russ) Mayberry; many cousins, nieces, nephews & friends. Ruth is predeceased by her first husband, Norman & second husband, Art; parents; sister, Berna & her husband Wayne Peterson; 2 stepdaughters, Marie (Fred Bailey) (George) Juet & Donna McIntyre; 17 brothers & sisters-in-law; 1 great-grandchild, Cheyenne; 2 daughters-in-law, Joyce Lord & Sara Wall & several nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts & uncles. Ruth's family would like to extend a heartfelt thank-you to Dr. Ramful & to the staff of Parkview Extended Care for their kind & loving care in her final years. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Parkview Extended Care, Elk Point or to your local long term care facility in her name c/o 5626 - 51 Street, St. Paul, AB T0A 3A1. As per her wishes Ruth will be cremated.

Memorial service will be held on Thursday, November 12 at 2:00 pm at Elk Point Senior Citizens Centre. Pastor Kelly Sibley will be officiating with burial & memorial service in Sundre, Alberta to follow at a later date. To send condolences online, please visit www.gracegardensfuneralchapel.com.

CARD OF THANKS

Thank You

The family of Irene Miller of Elk Point would like to sincerely thank the doctors and staff at the St. Paul Extendercare, Myram Villa and Elk Point Heritage Lodge for their care of Irene over the past nine years. We are grateful for all that you did to tend to Mom's needs and comfort.

We also extend heartfelt thanks to everyone who graciously contributed to Irene's Memorial Service: Rev. Anne McGrath, organist Gaby Bayduza, the United Church Choir, Holly Myshaniuk, Diane Cole, Bruce Kleeberger, Donna and Larry Babcock, members of the Pioneer Circle and all the staff at the Grace Gardens Funeral Chapel. Your kind support was greatly appreciated by the family.

Thanks, as well, to everyone who attended Irene's celebration of life, sent cards and flowers and supported us in many thoughtful ways through our time of loss. We feel blessed by your kindness.

Please join in

As a nation, Canada treasures the peace we have enjoyed for the past seven decades. As Canadians, it is only fitting that we pay tribute to those who made this peace possible.

Please, wear your poppy, share the silence and join the nation in remembering their sacrifice.

RECREATION CORNER

Come out and remember them

JENA COLBOURNE
Recreation Director

The Remembrance Day Ceremony will be taking place at the Senior's Centre from 10:30-11:30 am tomorrow, November 11th. Please arrive 15 minutes early if you are scheduled to lay a wreath. There will be a light lunch provided following the ceremonies.

I hope to see everyone out to remember those who lost their lives for us. The ones who fought for our freedoms and the people left at home. The sacrifices the brave men and women made is unimaginable. The sacrifices the our service men and women made and continue to make to ensure our safety should be honoured.

Each year that we are further removed from World War I and II, the harder it is for people to recognize those sacrifices, and that's something in itself that should be honoured. The fact that our children have never been exposed to a war of that magnitude, is something I am truly grateful for.

We may have fewer and fewer surviving veterans from World War II and none from World War I; but we have generations of life due to the veterans and those who didn't make it home.

Say your thanks on November 11th, join your community at the Senior's Centre tomorrow at 10:30, take a moment of silence at 11:00 a.m..

"Lest We Forget..."

YOUR VIEWS

Please wait, and show respect

To the Editor:

I have a really big issue, and it started to be more apparent to me when I first joined Army Cadets in September, 2011. I have been to many Remembrance Day ceremonies, some at school, others at Legions, etc.

When the clock strikes 12 on Halloween, marking it Nov. 1st, people start bringing out Christmas. They put it down everyone's throat as if we all should be so excited. I like Christmas. But I love and respect all our soldiers even more.

I want to honor all that our soldiers have done for us. There will always be soldiers not making it back in time for Christmas and some, not at all. They leave their families so ours are safe. Without them I wouldn't be able to put my Cadet uniform every Tuesday night, and for ceremonies such as Remembrance Day and honor all of the soldiers, whether fallen or not, on such an emotional day. They deserve so much more than just one day of remembrance.

Please, let's not bring Christmas out until a few days after Remembrance Day.

Enhanced wells, environmental implications, dealing with growth

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF NOV. 10 IN....

1985

The Energy Resources Conservation Board conducted a hearing into two applications for the phased development of enhanced wells in the Lindbergh heavy oilfield, including 265 existing primary producing wells, and for the disposal of 9,000 cubic metres of per month of wastewater from steam injection wells. An announcement that water for steam injection would be pumped from the North Saskatchewan River instead of from local underground potable water reservoirs was welcome news to the Elk Point Surface Rights Association.

1990

Elk Point Royal Canadian Legion President Helen Moneta was among those laying wreaths on Remembrance Day, with a sharp southeast wind sending the flags fluttering and a sizeable crowd shivering at attention as the trumpet sounded the Last Post. Amoco Canada held a well attended open house explaining the technical aspects and environmental implications of their proposed Phase II, which would increase the capacity of their Section 28 processing plant to 14,500 barrels per day, infill drill 28 more wells, drill and operate a sand cavern for disposal of produced sand and create pads on existing leases with directional wells.

The warm glow of pride in Elk Point's new cenotaph, dedicated on V-J Day the previous August, helped to stave off icy winds which buffeted the large crowd at the Remembrance Day service, where Margaret Poitras laid the wreath as a Silver Cross mother. Elk Point Elementary School and F. G. Miller High School entered a new era with the formation of Parent Advisory Councils, as required by recent changes to the Department of Education.

2000

Horse-drawn hay rides and shoppers' bingo were back on the agenda for Christmas Extravaganza, with Sherry Oszust chairing planning for the Dec. 1 event, which would include a Mystery Shopper who would visit stores and hand out a gift certificate to use there, a Spin the Wheel for prizes donated by businesses and a gingerbread house decorating contest. A fundraiser was underway for two local youngsters seriously injured when burning garbage exploded in the family's farmyard, with five-year-old Tyler Ockerman flown to Edmonton by STARS and his 11-year-old brother Marvin transferred by ground ambulance.

2005

The Town of Elk Point was looking into a brainstorming session of strategic planning through REACH Corporation in an effort to come up with a plan on how to deal with growth in the community, with the potential need for an economic development officer shelved until after that session. Six area lodges gathered to welcome BPO Elks Grand Exalted Ruler Mark Montgomery, who was on a coast-to-coast tour of lodges across Canada.

2010

Elk Point 4-H Multi Club's Beef Steer Project members weighed in on a new year as they weighed, tagged and poured parasite control medication on twelve steers to start off the season. The renovation of the former Elk Point Fire Hall into the new Christian Community Church took the concept of recycling to a whole new level as volunteers replaced the big roll-up doors with walls containing smaller doors and windows, including a pair of fragile stained glass windows from an old church, added washrooms in the foyer and replaced the steel door with handsome French doors.

Hockey

Then it was Bantam Avalanche's turn to shine when they took on Saddle Lake, winning quite easily, in a rather one sided shellacking. Hayden 'Hot Wheels' Ludlage giving the fans a high five, five goals for him, Chase Dorey with four more, two goals each for Angus McFarlane and Dylan 'the Destroyer' Ference, 'Silent Sam' Henderson with one and scoring his first of the year, Wolke 'Wolfman' Cueva. Not much action for the goalie Colton 'Colt 45' Van Maaron but he stood tall on a couple of occasions when the boys got a little nonchalant allowing a few wide open breakaways.

Saturday night's the night I like; especially when the Midget team defeats the Kitscoty Pitbulls. Looking for a little payback from their last week loss down in Kitscoty, the midget boys made me very proud, wearing some retro Midget Thunder sweaters from the glory days until their new threads arrive. Great action at both ends of the rink, the Thunder were down by a goal going into the third period, but after a pep talk from head coach Dwayne Odgaard, they really turned up the heat on the Pitbulls, handing the dogs a bone of contention to chew on after winning 7 to 4. Spencer 'Fortress' Hardcastle was solid in the last 20 minutes and never allowed any more goals. Four goals for 'Awesome Alex' Hunter, Austin 'Ozzie' Stafford looking like he never missed a beat stringing along sending one into the twine, Warren 'Night Shift' Plunkie with one and the team captain Carson 'Big Crunch' Ference with one goal, four assists and three trips to the sin bin, showing the boys "this is how its done when you lead a team." 'Dead-eye Dylan' Odgaard and 'Tricky Nick' Tucker with two assists each, Cameron 'Bear' Baird with an assist, Austin 'Astro' Axley and Chad 'Pick Pocket' Poitras were solid on the fore-check, Cyle 'Grinder' Graus and his cousin 'Warrior Warren' Ference getting no glory battling in the trenches. On Sunday night the midget hosted Irma, losing this one 5 to 2. The Odgaard brothers scoring, 'Tricky Nick' Tucker and Awesome Alex' with the assists.

Sunday was not so pretty for the Atom No. 1 team either when they faced the same Cold Lake team as the Atom No. 2 team faced the day before.... Cold Lake should have got a room and stayed over... anyway you look at it the Freeze is a solid team with no weak links that I could see. 'King Kong Konnor' Poitras with the only goal for the Avalanche. Rylee 'the Rocket' Warawa giving it 100 per cent as she always does, she's celebrating her birthday today. Goalie Vanden 'Super Mario' Moroziuk facing 86 shots, not including the ones defenseman Phoenix Quinney blocked. He he never flinched one bit and looks like a natural shot blocker.

Ever wonder why one week they have energy and the next week they don't? The energy level for the Pee wee Girls Storm was just not there this week. With only five shots in the first period; they regrouped and really picked it up their game in the second period adding another 13 shots, the score only 2 to 0 at that point was looking really good for a comeback; but the girls tanked again in the third period, running on empty, the final score 8 to 0. Still, I must say there was some very solid defense work by Jace Weidmark and Avery 'Whirlwind' Warawa; plus Paula Hladunewich, her sister Alayna and Rae-J Pruden all played a great game up front, but we needed more from the rest of the team.

Happy birthday today to Brett Letestu, wife of the Marksman, and Happy Anniversary to Val and Willie Poitras, proud grandparents of 'Pick Pocket' and 'Precious' Poitras.

And now for the K. A. Campbell quote of the week. "Everyone talks about age, but its not about age, its about work ethic. Winning never gets old." Last weeks answer to- "The crowd make the game" - Ted Williams.
